

Hey Everyone - have you recovered from today's busy day at music camp? You all did very well! We will do some review tomorrow morning so don't worry too much about anything. I will try to do Tuesday's 9:30 class and also finish Monday's topic in the same hour - so wish me luck with that. Hang in there! As long as we're all learning together, we're on the right track. See you in the morning!
